Dear Sirs,

It has been some time since I have corresponded with your society and Eric P. Newman, however you may recall me and my Pierre Chouteu Jr. & Co. electrotype Indian Peace Medal (same as the set in the Missouri Historical Society Museum). I am wondering what the current status of the society is and if Eric P. remains at the helm, etc.

I have been surprised over the years that some local benefactor there has not made it possible for the museum to acquire the desireable medal. I still have it, in the event you may still desire it and now know of some way we can give it a new home. I sure would like to see you obtain it. Eric was always very nice to me and helpful.

Hope to hear from you.

Sincerely,

William C. Blynn

P.S. Also, still have my Confederate "Dime" and "New Hampshire" copper. Wonde if anything more is now known about those two probable fantacy coins. The society should have for their counterfect coll'n.

Dear Mr. Blynn:

It was a surprise to hear from you. We still do numismatic work for the public and write articles, etc. for educational purposes as well.

After all the work we did for you we suggest that you donate your electro-type of the Chouteau Medal to us. We are a 501(c) (3) corporation approved for donations and you can then take an income tax deduction for the appraised value of any item given to us.

My best to you,

Eric P. Newman
